day continued to clip off the mileage toward the Azores. Shortly after midnight the Graf, which rose from Lakehurst at 7:18 a. m., E. S. T., yesterday, was more than 1500 miles east of New York. Messages picked up in America and in Germany from the airship, as well as reports to me Associated Press from ships at sea reported the dirigible's rapid progress. The master of the steamship Portcurno reported the airship heading eastward in fine weather and apparently all well aboard.

Under present conditions the Graf should easily nose into its home hangar before Thursday morning, in time to break its own round the world speed record, estimating the distance from Friedrichsthafen to Friedrichshafen rather than from Lakehurst.

years in the Texas league. He failed to deliver for Beaumont this season and went to Lake Charles in the Cotton States on option.

He complained to Rube Stuart, owner of the Beaumont club, when Stuart visited Lake Charles about the bumpy all night bus rides around the circuit and sought a change where he could sleep.

"Well, the best way to get out is to pitch your way out," Stuart advised.

Newman's next effort, two days later, was a no-hit, no-run game against Vicksburg.

NEGRO ODD FELLOWS OF THREE STATES TO ERECT HOME HERE

G. W. JACKSON INSTRUMEN-TAL IN GETTING HOME FOR AGED FOR CORSICANA

Fifty years ago the colored Odd Fellows organization entered Texas, and during the same year local negroes organized a colored Odd Fellows Lodge as a unit of the Texas organization. From that time until the present progressive, earnest and industrious negroes have been members of the order here and have labored hard for the unbuilding of their order and their here and have labored hard for the upbuilding of their order and their race at one and the same time. During all these years these progressive negroes have been assisted in all their moves in elevating their race by kindly disposed and liberal minded white citizens.

Among the leading spirits of the Colored Odd Fellows Lodge here, as weil as in all moves for the betterment of the conditions among their people were G. W. Jackson, for nearly a half a century principal of the Corsicana negro public school; Frank Adams, G. W. Johnson, R. T. Parde, Wm. Buchanan and T. Taylor. There have been others but among their race these men have been recognized as the outstand leaders in all that has been done to benefit the negro population of Corsicana, and they have had the respect and assistance of good white people in their work.

To Build Home Here.

The latest work of benefit to their membership in Che Colored Odd Fellows Lodge, of which G. W. Jackson has been Grand Master of Jurisdiction No. 25, comprising to Corsicana of the Colored Odd Fellows Home for the Aged. Land has already been contracted for in southeast Corsicana, and within some eight or ten months it is planned to open that institution for aged members of the order in Corsicana. A Labor Day Message

By JAMES J. DAVIS

The passing of each year has marked an increase in the dignity and importance of labor's holiday.

The nation has moved forward into world prestige and its 45 million gainfully employed people, comprising the great bulk of our population, have also moved forward into a new place of worth and dignity in the country's progress.

Wealth has increased and production has been quickened; but of even greater importance than these is the present spirit of good will which has now come to pass between employers and

The country at large now realizes, more strongly than ever before, that production is dependent upon the friendly partner-ship between employers and workers, and distress to the one means distress to the other.

Each has reasoned out the truth that in union there is strength, and that co-operation in industry means greater service to the public, profit to those who are fostering industry, and liberal wages to the workers,

This policy has become a fixed one today, because a liberal pay envelope means the ability to purchase not only the necessities but some of the luxuries of life as well.

While we are bejoicing over the progress of labor, industry and business, we cannot lose sight of some of the pressing prob-lems which affect us so vitally. There is, of course, the everpresent problem of unemployment, which is receiving added impetus from time to time by rapid institution of machinery, the frequent displacer of some of our most capable hand workers.

There is also a tendency among certain employers to make wastage of men of 45 and 50 years of age, who are oftimes retired, in order to make way for younger workers.

Other problems are constantly growing out of immigration, the urban movement of agricultural workers, and the coming to work age yearly of approximately 2,000,000 boys and girls who are ready to knock at the gates of employment.

But with patience and with the understanding and intelligence of both workers, employers and the country's best interests we shall solve these problems just as we have solved those of years

Let us ever keep in mind that our country's prosperity is wrapped up in the pay envelopes of our workers.

FINAL REPARATIONS AGREEMENTS SIGNED BY NATIONS INVOLVED

BELIEVED AGREEMENT ON YOUNG PLAN WILL DO MUCH FOR PEACE IN EUROPE

THE HAGUE, Aug. 30.—(P)—Letters and documents recording the agreement of France, Great Britain, Italy, Belgium and Germany on evacuation of the Rhineland and financial questions incident to acceptance of the Young reparations plan were signed at 12:15 p.m. today by representatives of those nations.

The protocol and other documents in which will be registered the results of The Hague conference of the governments will be ready for approval this evening, and the conference will adjourn sine die tomorrow.

Statesmen of Europe assembled here believe that in agreement on the Young committee's reparations plan to replace the Dawes plan they had done much for the future peace of the continent and the world.

The Young plan fixed the Ger-

The Young plan fixed the German war debt at a certain figure, beyond which the Germans could count on not having to pay and on which the former allies could count which the former allies could count in arranging payments of their own war debts.

It was believed this stabilizing would eliminate most of the constant post war bickering which in the last few years has so often disrupted the European family of nations. It was, in the words of Aristide Briand, French foreign minister and premier, a "final liquids."

Some Improvement French

tions. It was, in the words of Aristide Briand, French foreign minister and premier, a "final liquidation of the World War."

The approval was not gained without a battle of national interests, in which from the first Phillip Snowden, British chancellor of the exchequer, and Henri Cheron. French finance minister, seemed the principal combatants.

Agreement on the plan in the end brought certain definite gains to each. Mr. Snowden goes back to London with arrangements for reduced payments in kind from Germany and with 80 per cent of the additional reparations annulities he sought from Germany guaranteed him.

The German delegation, headed by Dr. Gustav Stresemann, will take to Berlin an allied agreement to evacuate the last of the Rhineland occupied areas by June 30 next year, with the creditor nations bearing a proportionate share of the occupation costs after Sept. 1.

France, though forced to make some concessions under the original allotments of the Young plan, has a schedule of unconditional German reparations anuulties against which she may issue bonds and other paper to meet her own obligations, something not possible under the Dawes plan.

The impromptu performance of Lieut, James A. Doolittle as the races drew to a close was halled as one of the nerviest feats of the races. Doolittle flew away from the airport to practice a routine of stunts for the crowd, stepped out of his plane when the wings came off, and landed with a parachute after diving 2,000 feet. A few minutes later he was stunting before the crowd in a new plane, without the rehearsal interrupted so graphically a few minutes before.

Hospital Nurses Return From Taking

Course in College Misses Mary Ketchum and Edna Benson, day supervisor and surgical supervisor, respectively, of the Navarro County Hospital, returned to Corsicana Saturday night from Greeley, Colo., where they took a special six weeks' post graduate nursing course at the Colorado State Teachers' College.

On the return trip from Greeley they stopped over for a few days in Colorado Springs.

FUNERAL SERVICES

the ten day carnival of speed and daring.

With $10,000 at stake, racers from Los Angeles today were led by Henry J. Browne, Cleveland. New York air mail pilot, with a flying time of 13 hours, 15 minutes and seven seconds, according to the timing of the judges.

Brown landed yesterday afternoon better than half an hour ahead of the time established by Lee Schoenhair, Los Angeles, who finished a week ago. One pilot remained in the race this morning. John P. Woods of Wasseau, Wisstuck to his plans for the flight after Att Goebel, winner of the Dole prize race to Honolulu, had withdrawn because of unsatisfactory condition of his plane.

DOORS DES MOINES

UNIVERSITY WILL.

REMAIN CLOSED

DES MOINES, Ia., Sept. 2.—(7)—
The doors of Des Moines University, which last May were splattered with eggs by students in a riot against the board of trustees, are to remain closed. The board announced that the university would be discontinued, the property reverting to mortgage holders.
The trustees action was the final episode of a stormy year at the Baptist fundamentalist institution. The student attack on board members followed dismissal of President H. C. Wayman and the entire faculty after the board had investigated and exonherated Dr. T. T. Shields of Toronto, Canada, trustee-president, and Miss Edith M. Rebman, secretary, of alleged indiscretions.

Reported Mussolini Will Discard One of His Cabinet Places

ROME, Sept. 2.—(P)—It is reported here that Premier Mussolini expects to retire from the post of minister of the interior in the Italian cabinet, although he will continue to hold sufficient ministerial posts to make himself a quorum. He personally retains enough portfolios to dominate the cabinet on any question.

It is believed that the Fascist cabinet on any question.

It is believed that the Fascist party is about to dissolve its functions in connection with the ministry of the interior on the ground that there is no longer vital necessity for its continuance in this department. The change, which is a radical one, may occur when the grand council of the Fascist council meets this autumn.

government was co-operating with the British by reorganizing and reinforcing the French military dispositions on the southern Syrian frontier to prevent armed Arabs from entering Palestine.

French official circles said groups of Arabs described in official British communiques Friday and Saturday to have entered Palestine could have come only from Transjordania where there were many Druse refugees.

night Dedouins attacked nearly a dozen villages in northern Galliee, pillaging the houses and burning crops. The dead in unconfirmed advices were numbered as high as 22. In the Gallieean district Jews evacuated Yesso H'Maalah, Mishmar and Hayarden when the attacking Arabs appeared.

Towns Are Fillaged

The Mesha colony was destroyed. Ayeleth and Jashakar were pillaged. Roah Pinah, the largest Jewish colony in Galliee, made preparations to break up an unexpected attack from the same body which pillaged Mishainar, It was announced the French
